

WHAT WE DELIVERED IN 2022

INCREASE KNOWLEDGE, INFORMATION SHARING AND SUPPORT

- 1 new website with increased functionality, toolkits and secure knowledge sharing portal
- 40+ mentees on mentoring scheme
- 1 new digital strategy set for 2023
- 12 monthly refreshed & published training calendars
- 4 national meetings hosted
- 4 media law sessions
- 1 Heads of Comms workshop
- 2 hot debrief sessions
- 4 major events supported
- 2 Academies
- 5 specialist police comms courses
- 3 thematic workshops
- 1 behaviour change workshop
- Lots of members resources, including- monthly bulletins, membership calendar & JobShop

- First national APComm Awards held
- 3 winners
- 5 runners-up
- National award entries, nominations and winnings
- 7 Twitter Takeovers
- 1 input to the Association of Police Lawyers (APL) conference
- 1 input to APCC comms leads

REWARD AND RECOGNISE PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATIONS

IMPROVE THE INCLUSIVITY & DIVERSITY OF POLICE COMMS

- 3 DEI workshops
- 1 recruitment planning session
- 1 toolkit developed

- 1 Business & Training Plan
- 2 appointed roles created
- 1 legacy archive created

ENSURE THE SUSTAINABILITY OF APCOMM

SUPPORT THE WELL-BEING & WELFARE OF MEMBERS

- 10 bespoke well-being sessions
- 2 Saving your Sanity sessions
- 1 OK event
- 1 dedicated toolkit in development
- 1 new starters pack
- 1 Heads of Comms starter pack produced